

Degradation recall by event character — generalisation to non-standard fault duration

The two long anomalous events occur in recording groups 8 and 9 and do not follow the paper's 10-minute induction schedule. All models recover standard inductions better.